Anti-Ragging Policy 2025-2026

Document Code: GU/ARP/2025-26 Issued By: Anti-Ragging Committee, Dean of Student Affairs Effective From: July 1, 2025 Version: 3.5 Compliance: UGC Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009 (Amended 2016)

1. Preamble

Ragging is a serious menace that destroys the academic environment, causes mental and physical harm to students, and undermines the dignity of individuals. Greenfield University has a zero-tolerance policy toward ragging in any form.

This policy is framed in compliance with the Supreme Court of India's directives (SLP No. 24295/2006 and related orders), the UGC Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009, and applicable state laws.

2. Definition of Ragging

As per UGC Regulations, ragging constitutes one or more of any of the following acts:

1. Any conduct by any student or students whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating, or handling with rudeness any junior/fresher student
2. Indulging in rowdy or undisciplined activities which cause or are likely to cause annoyance, hardship, or psychological harm or raise apprehension or fear in junior students
3. Asking junior students to do any act or to perform something which such student will not in the ordinary course do and which has the effect of causing shame, embarrassment, or mental agony
4. Any act of financial extortion or forceful expenditure burden put on junior students
5. Any act of physical abuse including all variants of it — sexual abuse, homosexual assaults, stripping, forcing obscene and lewd acts, gestures, causing bodily harm or danger to health or limb
6. Any act or abuse by spoken words, emails, posts, tweets, social media, or any other electronic medium
7. Any act that prevents or disrupts the regular academic activity of any student
8. Any act of cruelty, which adversely affects the physique or psyche of a fresher or junior student

9. Any act that affects the mental health and self-confidence of a fresher or junior student

3. Anti-Ragging Committees

3.1 Anti-Ragging Committee (ARC)

The ARC is responsible for overall policy implementation:

Member	Role
Vice-Chancellor	Chairperson
Dean of Student Affairs	Member Secretary
Registrar	Member
Dean, School of Law	Member
Two Senior Faculty Members	Members
Representative, Local Police	Member
Representative, Civil Society / NGO	Member
Two Student Representatives (Senior)	Members
Two Parents' Representatives	Members

3.2 Anti-Ragging Squad (ARS)

The ARS is responsible for surveillance and immediate action:

- Composition: Faculty members, security personnel, student volunteers
- Conducts surprise checks in hostels, classrooms, canteens, and other areas
- Available 24×7 during the beginning of each semester
- Reports to the Anti-Ragging Committee

3.3 Hostel Anti-Ragging Cell

Each hostel has a dedicated Anti-Ragging Cell:

- Warden as In-Charge
- Floor supervisors as contact points
- Student volunteers on each floor

4. Mandatory Measures

4.1 Affidavit Requirement

Every student admitted to Greenfield University must submit:

- A Student Affidavit declaring that they will not indulge in or abet ragging
- A Parent/Guardian Affidavit affirming that their ward will not participate in ragging

Both affidavits must be submitted online on www.antiragging.in (National Anti-Ragging Portal) and a copy must be submitted to the Admissions Office.

Admission is not complete without these affidavits.

4.2 Orientation Programs

- A mandatory anti-ragging orientation is conducted for all incoming students in the first week
- All faculty members, staff, and hostel wardens undergo anti-ragging sensitization
- The helpline number and reporting procedure are communicated to every student

4.3 Physical Measures

- CCTV surveillance in all hostels, corridors, common areas, cafeteria, and parking lots
- Adequate lighting in all campus areas — especially at night
- Security personnel present 24×7
- Access control at hostel entry points

5.2 Anonymous Reporting

- Students may report anonymously through the national helpline or the GU portal
- Identity of the complainant is strictly protected
- Anonymous reports are also investigated if prima facie credible

5.3 Third-Party Reporting

Faculty members, staff, parents, and any other person who witnesses or suspects ragging must report it immediately. Failure to report known incidents may attract action.

6. Investigation Procedure

Upon receiving a complaint:

Day 0: Complaint received → Immediately logged and acknowledged Day 1: Anti-Ragging Squad conducts a preliminary inquiry Day 2: Findings submitted to Dean of Student Affairs Day 3: If prima facie case established, ARC convened Day 5-15: Full investigation — statements from complainant, accused, witnesses Day 15: Findings report prepared Day 16-20: Opportunity given to accused to respond (Show Cause Notice) Day 21: Final order passed by ARC and forwarded to Vice-Chancellor for approval

The entire investigation process is completed within 21 days of receiving the complaint.

7. Punishments

Punishments are graduated based on the nature and severity of the act:

7.1 Administrative Penalties

Level	Severity of Ragging	Penalty
Level 1	Verbal abuse, teasing, minor humiliation	Written apology + Community service (20-40 hours) + Suspension for 1-7 days
